Boise State University
National Science Foundation
Scholarship for Computer Science & Engineering

$2,000-$5,000/year* Scholarship
*Renewable for up to 2 years

Application Deadline for Fall 2016: March 15, 2016

Requirements:

- U.S Citizen or permanent resident
- Demonstrated financial need
- Minimum high school 3.5 GPA (for new students only) or minimum Boise State 3.0 GPA (for current students only)
- Admitted and plan to enroll Fall 2016 as a full time student (12 credits or more)
- Enrolled/enrolling in a first-year level mathematics course for Fall 2016 including in any of the following: Math 143, Math 144, Math 170, Math 175, Math 189
- Majoring in Civil Engineering, Computer Science, Electrical & Computer Engineering, Material Science & Engineering or Mechanical & Biomedical Engineering
- Participation in monthly community building activities with other scholarship recipients (minimum of 4 cohort activities a semester) from the following: summer adventure rafting trip, seminar(s), cohort events (academic and social) such as resume building workshops and yoga.

To apply visit http://coen.boisestate.edu/students/scholarships/ and click “Apply Now” for the application